Ref: (a) Manual for Court-Martial, Part V

Encl: (1) NAVPERS 1626/7 (Report and Disposition of Offense) ICO LCDR Stettner

1. I have been advised of my right to personally appear before you regarding the alleged misconduct subject to Non-Judicial Punishment (NJP) currently pending.
2. In accordance with reference (a), I waive personal appearance for a formal Captain's Mast to address the NJP.
3. I pled guilty to the offense contained in enclosure (1). I admit that I engaged in a sexual relationship with Ms. Sarah Woods, a married woman not my wife, on or about November 2018, which produced a child. I admit that my conduct was prejudicial to good order and discipline based on the knowledge of my misconduct within my unit. Furthermore, such conduct was service discrediting based on the knowledge of Mr. Woods, a civilian not affiliated with the Navy, who was aware of my misconduct. The evidence in support of enclosure (1) is sufficient to establish my guilt by a preponderance of the evidence.
4. I understand I have the right to make a statement, whether verbally or in writing. Should I elect to provide a statement, it will be furnished to you prior to the date of the NJP.

Statements made by LCDR Stettner

3. You have the right to refuse nonjudicial punishment and request trial by court-martial in lieu of nonjudicial punishment. If you refuse nonjudicial punishment, charges could be referred to trial by court-martial by summary, special or general court-martial. If charges are referred to trial by summary court-martial, you may not be tried by summary court-martial over your objection. If charges are referred to a special or general court-martial you will have the right to be represented by counsel. Regardless of whether you accept or refuse nonjudicial punishment, you could be processed for administrative separation based on your misconduct. The max punishment that could be imposed if you accept nonjudicial punishment is: admonition or reprimand; 60 days restriction; 45 days extra duties; reduction in rate one pay grade (if E-6 or below); forfeiture of ½ base pay per month for 2 months; or any combination thereof as limited by Article 15, UCMJ.

4. If you decide to accept nonjudicial punishment, you may request a personal appearance before the commanding officer or you may waive this right.

a. Personal appearance waived. If you waive your right to appear personally before the commanding officer, you will have the right to submit any written matters you desire for the commanding officer's consideration in determining whether or not you committed the offenses alleged, and, if so, in determining an appropriate punishment. You are hereby informed that you have the right to remain silent and that anything you do submit for consideration may be used against you in a trial by court-martial.

(2) To be informed of the information against you relating to the offenses alleged;

(3) To be accompanied by a spokesperson provided or arranged for by you. A spokesperson is not entitled to travel or similar expenses, and the proceedings will not be delayed to permit the presence of a spokesperson. The spokesperson may speak on your behalf, but may not question witnesses except as the commanding officer may permit as a matter of discretion. The spokesperson need not be a lawyer;

(4) To be permitted to examine documents or physical objects against you that the commanding officer has examined in the case and on which the commanding officer intends to rely in deciding whether and how much nonjudicial punishment to impose;

(5) To present matters in defense, extenuation, and mitigation orally, in writing, or both;

(6) To have witnesses attend the proceeding, including those who may offer testimony or evidence against you, if their statements will be relevant and the witness(es) are reasonably available. (7) To have the proceedings open to the public unless the commanding officer determines that the proceedings should be closed for good cause. However, this does not require that special arrangements be made to facilitate access to the proceeding.

5. In order to help you decide whether or not to refuse nonjudicial punishment or to exercise any of the rights explained above should you decide to accept nonjudicial punishment, you may obtain the advice of a lawyer prior to any decision. If you wish to talk to a lawyer, a military lawyer will be made available to you, by telephone, free of charge, or you may obtain advice from a civilian lawyer at your own expense.

ACCUSED'S ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF APPEAL RIGHTS

I, LCDR Matthew J. Stettner, USN, assigned or attached to Fighter Squadron Composite 111 (VFC-111), have been informed of the following facts concerning my rights of appeal as a result of nonjudicial punishment held on ____ day of _____ 2019.

- c. The appeal must be in writing.
- d. There are only two grounds for appeal; that is:
 - (1) The punishment was unjust, or
 - (2) The punishment was disproportionate to the offense(s) for which it was imposed.
- e. If the punishment imposed included reduction from the pay grade of E-4 or above, or was in excess of: arrest in quarters for 7 days, forfeiture of 7 days' pay, extra duties for 14 days, or restriction for 14 days, then the appeal must be referred to a military lawyer for consideration and advice before action is taken on my appeal.
